

GOODRICH SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM APPLICATION PROCESSAPPLICATIONS ACCEPTED: OCTOBER 1, 2016-MARCH 1, 2017 at 5:00PM (CST)

The applicant must complete and submit the Goodrich application (including ALL required materials) to the Goodrich Scholarship Program by MARCH 1, 2017 at 5:00PM (CST) to be considered. Applicants who will have earned more than thirty-one college credits by May 2017 are NOT eligible for the Goodrich scholarship. ONLY United States Citizens or legal non-citizens of the United States who are residents of Nebraska are eligible for this scholarship.

Goodrich Required Application Materials:

- ☐ 1. Goodrich Scholarship Information Form. The applicant must complete and submit the Goodrich Scholarship Information Form online at <http://goodrich.unomaha.edu> by the MARCH 1 application deadline. The application process opens OCTOBER 1, 2016 and ends March 1, 2017 at 5:00PM (CST)
- ☐ 2. University of Nebraska at Omaha Application for Admission. Goodrich Scholarship Program applicants must complete an Undergraduate Application for Admission to UNO by March 1, 2017 at 5:00PM (CST). Applicants must follow the online instructions at <http://www.unomaha.edu/admissions/apply/undergraduate/index.php> or call UNO's admissions office at 402.554.2393 for UNO admission assistance. Goodrich applicants must meet UNO admission criteria and be admitted to UNO prior to acceptance to the Goodrich Scholarship Program.
- ☐ 3. Official Reference Forms. Goodrich Scholarship Program applicants must submit TWO official reference forms completed by teachers, counselors, employers or other professionals who are not family members or friends. Each applicant is responsible for verifying that the Goodrich Scholarship Program receives the two references by the March 1, 2017 deadline. Reference forms are available as part of the online application process at <http://www.unomaha.edu/college-of-public-affairs-and-community-service/goodrich-scholarship-program/apply/index.php>.
- ☐ 4. Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). Goodrich Scholarship Program applicants must establish financial need through FAFSA. To complete the FAFSA go to <http://www.fafsa.ed.gov> and follow the online instructions, or call UNO's Financial Support and Scholarships Office for further financial aid assistance at 402.554.2327. Final verification of an applicant's financial status is determined by the UNO Financial Support and Scholarships Office. Upon completing the FAFSA, applicants MUST provide Goodrich with proof of completion (through e-mail, fax/scan, or USPS mail) before the March 1 deadline. To accommodate the March 1 application deadline and to enable Goodrich to preliminarily assess the applicant's financial need, the applicant can complete the 2017-2018 EducationQuest College Funding Estimator online at <http://www.educationquest.org/college-funding-estimator>. All pages of this estimate must be printed out and submitted to the Goodrich Scholarship Program before the March 1 deadline. Note that the applicant must still complete and process all documents for the FAFSA before Goodrich can award any scholarship.
- ☐ 5. English Placement and Proficiency Exam (EPPE). The UNO Testing Center manages this free test which must be taken and processed before the March 1, 2017 deadline. The EPPE CAN NOW BE TAKEN ONLINE. To take the exam online, applicants MUST have their UNO NetID Credentials (username and Password). Note that this UNO NetID is not the 8-digit number but is created after applying to UNO using parts of your first and last name. THIS online PROCESS can take SEVERAL days, so it is imperative to PLAN AHEAD. The FINAL EPPE TESTING DATE for Goodrich applicants is February 25, 2017. Because the EPPE is now offered online at any time, the EPPE will be offered in person and on campus ONLY 3 times (February 11, 24 [limited seats] and 25). For additional information, visit the UNO Testing Center website at <http://www.unomaha.edu/enrollment-management/testing-center/testing-services.php> or call UNO's Testing Center at 402.554.4800.
- ☐ 6. Transcripts AND ACT/SAT scores. The applicant must submit high school (or GED) transcripts, ACT/SAT scores, and any college transcripts to the Goodrich Scholarship Program by the MARCH 1 application deadline. Goodrich will accept ACT/SAT scores included on the applicant's high school transcript. Note: Transcripts required as part of UNO's Undergraduate Application for Admission process cannot be faxed and must be sent directly from the high school to Undergraduate Admissions. Goodrich cannot request transcripts from UNO's Admissions Office.

Only after completing the six steps above and submitting the required application materials by March 1, 2017 at 5:00PM (CST) will a Goodrich applicant's file be complete and eligible for consideration. Eligible applicants with complete files will then be invited for an on-campus interview and asked to write a personal essay. Applicants can track their Goodrich application status online after creating an application account at <http://www.unomaha.edu/college-of-public-affairs-and-community-service/goodrich-scholarship-program/apply/index.php> Applicants may either contact the Goodrich office by email at unogoodrich@unomaha.edu, or call 402.554.2875 with any questions.
